Board of Home Missions Grants Southern Union College $20,000

Southern Union College, Wadley, Alabama, was recently voted a grant of $20,000 by the Congregational Christian Board of Home Missions.

The grant was announced at a luncheon meeting of members of the board of trustees of the college by Rev. Dr. Wesley A. Hotchkiss, general secretary of the board's Higher Education and American Missionary Association division.

Dr. Hotchkiss, who was introduced by the president of Southern Union, Dr. Walter A. Graham, told the trustees that $10,000 of the grant would be available immediately. The additional $10,000, he said, would be paid after the college has itself raised $40,000.

The $60,000 total, President Graham said, will be used for the enlargement and improvement of the school's facilities. "We are greatly encouraged by this substantial grant," he declared. "With this support the future of the college is assured. Recognition by the Board of Home Missions will serve as an incentive to the many who have made sacrificial gifts to the school over a period of years."

President Graham said the unofficial slogan of the school was "No place can do so much with so little."

An outstanding Congregational Christian layman, the Southern Union College president was associated with the Board of Home Missions for more than 11 years as the national director of the denomination's Laymen's Fellowship.

Southern Union, the only Congregational Christian junior college, was founded in 1922 by churches and individuals of the Christian denomination "to put a liberal arts education within reach of many young men and young women of very limited means."

Many of its students depend upon scholarship aid and virtually all day students work a full eight-hour shift in nearby textile mills. The majority are from the rural areas of Alabama but practically all the Southern states are represented in the student body.

The college is supported by gifts from churches and individuals in every state in the Union.

Southern Union trustees attending the luncheon, held in connection with the General Synod of the United Church of Christ at Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio, included Rev. James H. Lightbourne Jr., Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Lillian Gregory, Chicago, Ill.; Rev. Dr. Earle Pleasant, New York City; Rev. Dr. Charles Franklin Parker, Prescott, Arizona; Rev. Richard A. Wolff, Swampscott, Mass.; Dr. J. Earl Danielly, Elon College, N. C.; Rev. Dr. Paul R. Reynolds, Pleasant Hill, Tennessee; Theodore Schwalm, Lancaster, Penn.; Mrs. Mary Lou Brasseur and Rev. Ludwig C. Emigholz, Cleveland, Ohio.

United Church General Synod Adopts Statement Of Faith

The Second General Synod of the United Church of Christ climaxed its recent three-day session by adopting the Statement of Faith submitted to it by the Commission appointed for the purpose of drafting such a document.

The statement is not a creedal test for church membership and is not binding upon churches or individual members. It has, however, been approved to be sent to the churches for their use and it will be the recognized statement of faith for the new denomination.

The Commission to Prepare a Constitution reported to the Synod and submitted a draft of a proposed constitution. Because the constitution was available for just a few weeks prior to the national meeting, it was voted not to take approving action on it at this time. The constitution will be sent to the churches and other organizations for their study and suggestions.

The recommendations that result from this study will be referred to the constitution commission, which will report again to a special meeting of the General Synod next summer. If the Synod approves the constitution then it will be sent to the Evangelical and Reformed Synods and Congregational Christian Churches for their approval. If the Synods and churches approve, the constitution will be declared adopted by the General Synod in 1961.

The General Synod also adopted the "Call to Christian Action in Society", submitted by the Council for Christian Social Action as a guide to the activities of the churches in social action.

The Statement of Faith was adopted by a unanimous vote. The vote was followed by great applause and the spontaneous singing of the Doxology.

Excerpts From Proposed United Church Constitution Draft

(Please see Superintendent's Column for Explanation)

2. The United Church of Christ acknowledges as its sole Head Jesus Christ, the Son of God and the Saviour of men. It acknowledges as brethren in Christ all who share in this confession. It looks to the Word of God in the Scriptures, and to the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, to prosper in the world its creative and redemptive work, and to preserve the historic faith from destructive error. It claims as its own the faith of the historic Church, expressed in the ancient creeds, and reclaimed in the basic insights of the Protestant Reformers. It affirms the responsibility of the Church in each generation to make this faith its own in reality of worship, in honesty of thought and expression, and in purity of heart before God. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord and the practice prevailing among evangelical Christians, it recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and the Lord's Supper or Holy Communion.

ARTICLE I. NAME

4. The name of this Church shall be UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST.

ARTICLE II. STRUCTURE

5. The United Church of Christ is composed of congregations or local churches organized in associations, conferences and the General Synod.

ARTICLE IV. CONGREGATIONS OR LOCAL CHURCHES

7. The basic unit of the life and organization of the United Church of Christ is the congregation or local church.

8. A congregation or local church is a group of persons who, believing in God as Heavenly Father, and accepting Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, and depending on the guidance of the Holy Spirit, are organized according to appropriate ecclesiastical and legal procedures for Christian worship, for the furtherance of Christian fellowship, and for the ongoing work of Christian witness.

10. All persons who are or shall become members of a congregation or local church of the United Church of Christ are members of the United Church of Christ, men and women sharing the same rights, privileges and responsibilities.

21. Nothing in this Constitution and By-Laws shall be construed as in any way giving to the General Synod, or to any conference or association, now or at any future time, the power to abridge or impair the autonomy of any congregation or local church in the management of its own affairs. Nothing herein contained shall destroy or limit in any way the right of each congregation or local church to continue to operate in the way customary to it; to retain or secure its own charter; to adopt its own constitution and by-laws; to formulate its own covenants and confessions of faith; to admit members in its own ways and to provide for their discipline or dismissal in any way not contrary to law; to call or dismiss its pastor or pastors by such procedure as it shall determine; to own and manage its own property and funds; to control its own benevolences; and to withdraw by its own decision its membership in the United Church of Christ at any time without forfeiture of ownership or control of any real or personal property owned or controlled by it.

22. Actions by, or decisions or advice emanating from, the General Synod, a conference or an association, should be held in the highest regard by every congregation or local church; but no such action, decisions or advice shall be binding on any congregation or local church.

ARTICLE V. THE MINISTRY

25. A Minister of the United Church of Christ is one of its members holding standing in an association or conference of the United Church of Christ, who has been called of God and ordained to preach the Gospel, to administer the sacraments and rites of the Church, and to exercise pastoral care. He may engage in ministries other than the pastorates which are approved by the Church through the association or conference in which he holds standing.

26. A Commissioned Worker of the United Church of Christ is one of its unordained members who has been called of God and commissioned for a specific full-time church-related service.

27. A Lay Minister of the United Church of Christ is one of its unordained members who has been recognized by his association for duties, mainly preaching and conducting services of worship, within that association and under its guidance.

29. A Licentiate is a student in care of association who has temporary authorization from his association or conference to perform such ministerial duties as it may determine.

30. Ordination is the rite whereby the church sets apart by prayer and the laying on of hands those whom God has called to the Christian ministry. By this rite the Church bestows on them its formal authorization to perform all the duties and exercise all the prerogatives of its ministry.

31. The standing of a minister of the United Church of Christ is held in an association or conference.

32. The calling of a minister to a congregation or local church is a concern of the church at large, represented in the association and conference, as well as of the minister and the congregation or local church.

ARTICLE VI. ASSOCIATIONS AND CONFERENCES

33. Pending their reorganization on a territorial basis, synods, conferences, and associations in existence at the time this Constitution is declared to be in force, may act as conferences and associations of the United Church of Christ . . .

41. A conference is that body of the United Church of Christ which is composed, without regard to race, language, or culture, of congregations or local churches in a geographical area, and of ministers with standing in the associations of that conference or in the conference itself.

42. Subsequent to the initial reorganization of conferences in the United Church of Christ, the boundaries of any new conference, or any adjustment of boundaries between conferences, shall be determined by the conferences concerned with the approval of the General Synod. The standing of a conference as a body of the United Church of Christ is determined by the General Synod.

Mrs. Carl N. Sanford, Central Church, Atlanta, and Mrs. Kermit Harris, First Church, Andalusia, attended a National Pre-School Training Laboratory held at Elmhurst College, Ill., by the Christian Education Division of the United Church.

Work Camp Grooms Southern Union Campus

Prof. and Mrs. Henry Diehl of Southern Union College, Wadley, Ala., directed the Work Camp held there in June. Mrs. Diehl also served as dietitian and Mr. Robert Faulkner as Work Chairman.

There were ten campers attending, including Mr. Yoshio Ohara, a Japanese student, who spoke and showed slides at the Camp, addressed the Kiwanis Club and also the Women's Missionary Society. Two young people came from California and three girls came from Indiana. Phil Harry from Lanett and Harry Turner from Birmingham represented Alabama. Melissa Kelley and Lindianne Roberson from LaGrange represented Georgia.

The two weeks were filled with work, Bible study, special trips and periods of recreation, and warm discussions. The Camp group cleaned out the swimming pool, worked on the field house, completely rejuvenated the lounge at Kimball Hall, and painted the Bison Room and snack bar. Southern Union College is never quite the same after one of our Work Camps.

The Diehls did a splendid job of leading this group of young people. To show their appreciation the campers had a surprise birthday party for "Jo" and the baby, not forgetting a carnation for "Hank".

Kentucky - Tenn. Pilgrim Fellowship Elects Officers

At the Pilgrim Fellowship business sessions held at Pomona Camp in June the following officers and chairmen were elected.

PRESIDENT — Don Leichty, Belvidere, Tenn.

VICE - PRESIDENT — Jimmy Kennedy, Chattanooga.

SECRETARY — Sandra Pendergrass, Daisy, Tenn.

TREASURER — Billy Wightman, Pleasant Hill.

Faith Commission — Barbara Thompson, Pleasant Hill, Tenn.

Action Commission — Donna Lewis, Soddy, Tenn.

Fellowship Commission — David Snively, Pleasant Hill, Tenn.

Advisor — Rev. Harold Henderson, Daisy, Tenn.

Valley District PF Holds Weekend Rally

The Valley District P. F. held its third annual weekend rally at the Sides Camp in Langdale, Alabama, on June 20 and 21. Approximately thirty PFers were present for the interesting two days of fun and fellowship. The program included afternoon workshops on the three commissions of Pilgrim Fellowship and one on daily devotions. Ellen Hull led the recreation for the group on Saturday afternoon, and Rev. A. C. Nelson from Huguley gave an afternoon message entitled "Challenge to Youth." After fun singing and supper the group enjoyed an evening swim at the West Point pool. On Sunday the group went to Huguley to church services, and after communion service, conducted by Rev. John Schofield, the rally for 1959 adjourned.

The 1959-60 Valley District officers are: Wray Allen, Huguley, president; Mason Dollar, Langdale, vice-president; Doris Harding, Phenix City First, secretary-treasurer. Rev. Herbert Long from Russell Woods Church in Phenix City is the sponsor. As has been our yearly custom, a camp "King" and "Queen" were selected. The PFers nominate three boys and three girls to run for the titles, and the reigners are voted on by the district members at 1c a vote. This year's "king" and "queen" were Tony Dollar and Sara Hearn, both from Langdale. Four of the six PFs in the district were represented — Langdale, Huguley, Lanett, and Phenix City First.

Central Ga. PF Meeting

The last meeting of the Central Georgia Pilgrim Fellowship was held at Hebron in Crest. The theme was the work of our Congregational Christian denomination in the Middle East. The LaGrange group had a Middle East program.

The newly formed group from First Congregational Christian Church, Columbus, Georgia, led the opening workshop.

A new vice-president was elected. Suzanne Warren from Southern Union College led the "Recreation Period."

Rev. Paul Pike has resigned as minister of Todd Church, Shawmut, Ala., effective September 1, 1959.

Echoes Of Southern Union

Walter A. Graham, President

Summer school of 1959 is now past history and every effort is being made to have the campus in apple-pie order for the fall quarter which begins on Sunday, September 20, when the dormitories will be opened to Freshmen.

All persons connected with the college join in rejoicing at the good news of the grant from the Board of Home Missions which is so graciously reported in other columns of this issue of the NEWS.

The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees has been called to a special meeting where detailed plans for meeting the challenge will be discussed and decided upon.

The college is happy to announce the gift by Mr. and Mrs. David Eddy of their home in Wadley to the college. The gift was made possible by the generosity of Mrs. Brewer Eddy, Dave's mother, and a real friend of the college. The younger Eddys are spending the summer in Massachusetts and will move to Florida in September. Many people will pleasantly recall that Dave was Treasurer of the college for a number of years and did an excellent job in receiving money and paying bills. The Eddys will be missed in Wadley.

The faculty and staff have been in many places during the summer. Miss Grace Crump is in Mart, Texas. Mrs. Frank Bonham is in Cincinnati, Ohio. Madame Lilly Justus is in New York. The Nofflet Williams are in school at Peabody in Nashville, Tennessee. The Robert Faulkners have returned from their annual vacation, visiting various places in Alabama and Florida. Dean Van Cleave and his sister made a fast trip to Indiana. Rev. Carl Landes attended a conference in North Carolina after his wife returned from a trip to Illinois.

Twelve members of the Board of Trustees attended the 2nd meeting of the General Synod in Oberlin, Ohio, and had a luncheon meeting with the President. See other report for names of those present.

Say a little prayer for us; come to see us; recommend students to us; support us and we'll all be sincerely happy and grateful that you did.

Superintendent and Mrs. Lightbourne and children will visit Jekyll Island, Ga., and in Virginia during August.

Superintendent's Corner

Excerpts from the proposed Constitution for the United Church of Christ as submitted to the General Synod in July are printed on page 2 of this issue of The Southeast News.

It should be kept in mind that these are excerpts from a "draft copy". The constitution has not been approved by the General Synod to be sent to the synods and churches for their action approving or disapproving it. The "draft copy" will be sent to the churches this fall for their study and to give them the opportunity to suggest changes in the document.

The excerpts have been printed in order to settle the questions in the minds of many concerning the status of churches and ministers in the United Church. It should be noted that the rights and responsibilities of each are carefully guarded. It should also be noted that the initiative for the realignment of conventions, conferences and synods rests with these bodies.

When the draft copy of the constitution becomes available for study it is hoped that our ministers and churches will give special and careful attention to it.

Reverend Richard Beebe, minister of Briarcliff Congregational Church, Briarcliff Manor, New York, has been elected to the staff of the Church Finance Advisory Service of the Board of Home Missions.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

Adopted by the General Synod of the United Church of Christ

Oberlin, Ohio, July 8, 1959

We believe in God, the Eternal Spirit, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ and our Father, and to his deeds we testify:

He calls the worlds into being,
creates man in his own image and sets before him the ways of life and death.

He seeks in holy love to save all people from aimlessness and sin.

He judges men and nations by his righteous will declared through prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Lord, he has come to us
and shared our common lot, conquering sin and death
and reconciling the world to himself.

He bestows upon us his Holy Spirit,
creating and renewing the Church of Jesus Christ, binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues and races.

He calls us into his Church
to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to be his servants in the service of men,
to proclaim the gospel to all the world
and resist the powers of evil,
to share in Christ's baptism and at his table,
to join him in his passion and victory.

He promises to all who trust him forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace, courage in the struggle for justice and peace,
his presence in trial and rejoicing and eternal life in his kingdom which has no end.

Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto him. Amen.

First Church, Caddo, Constructs New Building

The members of First Church at Caddo are happy and proud to be able to use the new Sanctuary and Educational Building at Caddo. It has taken a lot of hard work on the part of everyone, but it has been a labor of love. We are also grateful for the help and encouragement of Superintendent James H. Lightbourne Jr., and the Church Building Society. The pastor, the Rev. Ernest Shelton, had charge of the first service and brought the message. This was on June 14. The pastor-at-large, the Rev. Guy L. Colbert, brought the message for the second service on June 28. We have Sunday School, with good attendance, every Sunday.

New Filmstrips Available

Two new filmstrips have arrived in the Southeast Convention Office. One is called "Face to the Future," a filmstrip with a reading script on our new overseas mission theme for 1959-60, Africa. We have also on this theme, "Jaoa's Life at School."

The other filmstrip, "Digging Deep", is on the new home theme, "The Church's Mission in Town and Country." It is particularly suitable for youth groups and includes a 33 1/3 speed record.

The First Town and Country Convocation of the United Church will be held at Oberlin College, September 1-3. Interested persons should contact the convention office.

Rev. Richard M. Waugh Leads Jones Chapel Growth

Jones Chapel, under the leadership of its pastor, the Rev. Richard Marvin Waugh, is now enjoying a new period of growth. The church recently received several new members by letter and on confession of faith.

For many years Jones Chapel had only one service a month, but they have recently come to two services, and, in addition, they have a prayer meeting every Saturday night.

On the second Sunday in June the pastor-at-large, Rev. Guy L. Colbert, accompanied the good pastor and his wife to Jones Chapel. Rev. Colbert brought the message and enjoyed a fine fellowship with the pastor and his people.

The Rev. and Mrs. Waugh have reason to be proud and happy. Their first grandson, Jeffrey Scott, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Waugh Jr. on June 16.

Church History Course Completed At Mt. Lebanon

On Sunday evening, May 3, the members of Mt. Lebanon Church completed a course in Church History which was taught by North Alabama's pastor-at-large, the Rev. Guy L. Colbert. Most of the members attended all or part of the sessions. After the last session the teacher was very pleasantly surprised with a generous "pounding" of canned goods and produce.

On the first Sunday in June, Dean A. R. Van Cleave of Southern Union College, brought the morning message and gave certificates to those who successfully completed the course and passed the final examination. The Rev. Homer Barnes, Mrs. Homer Barnes, Mrs. Margaret Fore, Mrs. Grace Murphree, and Mrs. Mary Smith received certificates, and Mrs. Murphree and Mrs. Fore each received four hours of college credit as well.

Dr. Van Cleave brought a fine message on the Five Foolish Virgins.

Goodwill, like a good name, is got by many actions, and lost by one.

—Lord Francis Jeffrey

WHAT 'U DOIN'?

Swimming! Camp! Vacation! Why does so much have to be crammed into such a short summer? With all the excitement of summer it is so easy to replace Pilgrim Fellowship activities with other activities. Stop and think how backward this is, for in the summer we have so much to thank God for—all the extra summer activities of Pilgrim Fellowship, such as camps and rallies. Let us not forget, but become more interested in Pilgrim Fellowship in the summer.

If in any way I can help you, whether it be in your rallies or elsewhere, please let me know.

Hope to see YOU soon!

Wayne Graves,
Convention PF Vice-President

These young people and their advisor, Rev. Warner Noles, were elected as the new officers and commission chairmen of the S. Ala. - N. W. Fla. District PF at the Rally held at Dorcas Church, Crestview, Fla., May 16-17.

Ga. - S. C. Women Hold Annual Summer Retreat

The Georgia - S. Carolina Women's Retreat was held recently at the New Perry Hotel, Perry, Georgia. The Rev. Edward Nichols from our Federated Church at Demorest served as Chaplain, using the words of the hymn, "Forward Through the Ages", our theme hymn for the year, as the basis for his worship and Bible Study.

Mr. Avedis Artinian from Syria and Lebanon gave us messages on the Middle East and from the Scriptures.

Workshops were conducted on the various departments of work. Our Southeast Convention President, Mrs. Jettie Logan, and the treasurer, Miss Dora Brackin, were present. Dora Brackin presented the program, "Manifold the Service," which she had written for the Annual Program Book, at the banquet. Mrs. Logan presented the new packet, assisted with a workshop and installed the new officers. Mrs. James T. McAdams presided.

The following officers were elected and the chairmen of the departments of work appointed for the next two years:

PRESIDENT — Mrs. Edw. L. Askren Jr., from Central Church, Atlanta

1st VICE-PRESIDENT — Mrs. Walter Williams, United Church, LaGrange

Christian Education: Mrs. William Ivie, Deerlodge, Tenn.

Missionary Education: Miss Miriam Heermans, Pleasant Hill, Tenn.

Christian Social Action: Mrs. Fred Muhleman, Pilgrim Church, Chattanooga.

Friendly Service: Mrs. W. J. Moore, First Church, Knoxville, Tenn.

Southeast Convention CHEF Goal Is $25,000

The Southeast Convention in its annual sessions in the spring voted to accept a goal of $25,000 in the 7½ million dollar campaign for the Christian Higher Education Fund now in progress throughout the Congregational Christian Fellowship.

The funds raised through this campaign will be used by the Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions and the Board of Home Missions for their institutions of higher learning, seminaries, and campus ministries in this country and around the world. Both boards will engage in scholarship programs to assist in the education of worthy students here and abroad.

The $25,000 goal for the convention will be broken into goals for the individual churches of the convention. Early in the fall, if not before, each church will be informed of the goal suggested for it and will be requested to vote its "Declaration of Intention" indicating acceptance of the goal. Payments may be spread over a period of two to five years.

Rev. Hugh Lasseter is chairman of the committee for the convention. Members of the committee are: Rev. Warren Blankenhorn, Rev. Guy L. Colbert, Rev. W. Raymond Berry, and Rev. A. Ray Meserve. Another member to be from the East Alabama Association will be appointed soon.
